The National Motorcycle Museum is a place where legends live on. Over 800 British motorcycles from 1898 to the present provide an historical record of a great British Industry, which dominated world markets for sixty years. The museum also incorporates a state of the art and luxurious conference complex. The purpose built conference suites range in capacity from boardroom style for 12 to theatre style for 950, offering the ideal venue for every occasion.

The National Motorcycle Museum is located at the heart of the country's motorway network and minutes from Birmingham International airport and train station. Voted Britain's Best Non-Hotel Conference Venue by the Country's professional conference organisers, the National Motorcycle Museum provides a truly unique venue for conferences, seminars, banquets or functions. Every suite within the complex is designed to create the perfect atmosphere for both business and pleasure.

Within the museum group are the Manor Hotel Meriden and The Windmill Village Hotel, Golf & Leisure Club in Allesley. Delegates can now enjoy luxurious overnight accommodation at favourable rates. The Manor Hotel is minutes from the Museum and is situated in landscaped grounds, in the picturesque village of Meriden. With a proven reputation and stylishly appointed the Manor Hotel affords conference organisers increased flexibility and options. The Windmill Village with its leisure complex and 18 hole golf course is 10 minutes drive from the museum.
